

31 JAN 1971

Newhouse Chain Is Set to Serve 400 Newspapers

CHICAGO, Jan. 30 (UPI)—Starting Monday the Newhouse News Service will be part of a new 24-hour nationwide news service formed by the Chicago Sun-Times and Chicago Daily News and the New York Times.

Marshall Field, publisher of the two Chicago newspapers, and S. I. Newhouse, owner of the Newhouse newspaper chain, announced the new service Friday. The round-the-clock service will be delivered to more than 400 newspapers.

The agreement on the New York Times-Chicago Daily News-Newhouse wire was negotiated by Clifton Daniel, associate editor of the New York Times; William P. Steven, vice president of the Field Newspapers, and David Starr, editor of the Long Island Press, who supervises the Newhouse News Service.